

In accordance with guidance from the Florida Department of Economic Opportunity, CareerSource Flagler Volusia posted our two-year plan modification to our website on August 15, 2022. Using WordPress technology, individuals were welcomed and encouraged to submit their comments, which would have been directly sent to CareerSource Flagler Volusia's President & CEO.

This plan modification was shared with area stakeholders, including required partners, elected officials with the Flagler County Commission and Volusia County Council, local labor and businesses as well as industry associations. A hard copy was made available in our administrative office.

No comments were received.